HALL-OATES.

We take the following from the Beaumont, Texas, Enterprise, and wish to state the many friends of the bride and also the groom in this city join with the Herald in extending congratulations.

We understand that they are now boarding, but are preparing to going to housekeeping soon.

J. P. Hall, telegraph operator in the local Western Union office, sprang a surprise on his many Beaumont friends yesterday afternoon when he and Miss Bonnie Oates of Hayti, Mo., were quietly married by Justice H. E. Showers at the latter's home, 809 Maple street. This marks the happy culmination of a romance which started while Mr. Hall was depot agent at Hayti.

The bride comes of one of the best families of Southeast Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall will make their home in Beaumont.

Joseph Klinkhardt, who owns a fine farm in this county, and who has been here since March looking after the farming interests, returned to his home at Maplewood the first of last week.

John Scott and family left Wednesday of last week for their new home at Granite City, Ill. They have rented their residence to D. O. Slater and family.

H. T. Simpson is another new Herald subscriber. Still they continue to come in.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Uncle Jeff Alexander of Point Pleasant was in Hayti Friday and visited his old friends, Dr. F. A. Mayes, W. W. Tarkington and W. P. Meatte. Uncle Jeff is a fine old gentleman, and it is a pleasure to talk to him and hear him relate old stories during the civil war days.

Our prices are right, our goods the best. Buckley.

Mrs. Chas. Martin left Friday for a few months visit with friends and relatives at Lepanto, Ark. Before leaving she called at the Herald office and subscribed for the Herald, saying that it was better than a letter. We are glad to enroll her name on our list.

Little Miss Louise Dunn of Sikeston is here visiting her cousin, Mrs. Johnnie Dorris. Friday Mrs. Dorris and guest visited Mrs. Dorris' mother, Mrs. J. H. Rutherford, at Caruthersville.

John Nunn of the Dowd-Gayoso vicinity was trading in town Saturday and reported crops in good condition considering the excessive rains and the hail that struck this county this spring.

MISSOURI MILITIA.

By Herald Correspondent.

Laredo, Tex., July 10.—The 2nd Regiment of the Missouri National Guard arrived yesterday, and the Missouri contingent numbers 4000 men and A B and C Batteries. Maine is camped next with two regiments.

Company B began drilling this morning as if health was the best. Yesterday, Sunday, the Company stayed in camp, cleaning up after the storm, which came Saturday night, blowing down several tents. The citizens of Laredo stated it was the first rain storm in nine months.

While assisting the cooks, Chas. Key happened to a very serious accident in scalding his foot.

John L. Shepard is anxious to be transferred back to his old company. He is now on the mounted service.

Capt. Reeves and Lieut. Hitchcock visited the Rio Grande, going out on the bridge far enough to view the Mexican soldiers. When not busy Lieut. Ed Huffman spends his time with the home boys.

Chas. Provo, the company barber, has purchased a chair and will do a good business.

July 12.—Company B is again enjoying themselves in the rain, which fell before the morning mess was over.

Sore arms are getting fashionable among the boys, as they were again vaccinated, for typhoid this time, this going in the right arm. The smallpox vaccination had taken well, and the boys all have sore arms, some suffering with much pain. While taking this vaccination the boys are at leisure, and are spending most of the time watching for a letter from that wife, mother or sweetheart, or visiting the city. Some take shower baths. Then comes the washboard and tub.

Roger G. Smyth, now 1st Sergeant of Company B, came from Chicago, Ill., to Nevada, Mo., to enlist, and is now on the border, while Serg. Odie Gamble and Private Oscar Dickson's time had expired, and passing the physical examination would not follow the command, and returned home with the rejected. James Wilson and Clodie Clay are now deserters, their ten days being up the 11th, and their names have been struck from the roll. Co. B has had to report the only deserters of the 4th Regiment.

One battalion of the Maine infantry was sent out for outpost duty while the Texas artillery was at Indian Ford, and they had plenty to do without talking or smoking. They watched the Mexicans while Co. B. was at drill Monday on the banks of the Rio Grande. The Mexican soldiers are on the other side, which is only about 200 yards. Our boys claimed they were taking notes of the American drilling.

July 11.—Boys of Co. B at last are seeing some strenuous work. One small detachment of the company under Corporal Johnson did outpost duty last night at the big power plant. This plant has been guarded every night since last September. Our boys returned this morning at about 6:30, stating that the Mexican sentries were walking past, not over 200 yards away, just across the Rio Grande. Our detachment was issued 100 rounds of ammunition, while the entire

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Henry Lingemann, another one of the good farmers and a first-class Herald supporter, was in town Saturday and paid this office a visit we certainly appreciated. Before leaving he said he wanted us to get another good square meal and passed a dollar into our hands for the renewal subscription of his sister, Mrs. Heman Englert, of St. Louis.

Lost or Strayed—From my place north of Braggadocio, in April, 1916, one bluish gray cow, marked with swallow fork in each ear. Reasonable reward for information leading to recovery. E. C. Speer, Caruthersville, Mo., R. F. D. No. 1.

George Klinkhardt, one of the good farmers west of town, and also another one of those good Herald supporters, was in town Monday, and of course paid our office an appreciated visit. Geo. reports that he has good crops, considering what the rains and hails of this spring did to his crop. He showed us some good specimens of cotton bolls.

Building material of all kinds can be found at the East Arkansas Lumber Co. Call around and let's get acquainted.

The ice cream supper given by the Missionary Society of the M. E. Church South on the square Saturday night was a very good success. The receipts amounted to $25.75. This was very good considering the attractions that night.

Tobe and Francis Baird left Tuesday in their automobile for an extensive automobile trip through the east. They will visit at Evansville, Ind., and at their old home and other points.

regiment was equipped with ammunition.

There is no excitement along this part of the border.

Laredo is mostly a Mexican town. The children visit our camp at mess time, taking what the boys will give them and eat as if they were starving.

The people at home will be glad to learn of the honor that fell on their circuit clerk, Ed Huffman. He is Battalion Adjutant, ranking as First Lieutenant. He has been appointed Judge Advocate of the Special Court Martial of the Missouri Brigade.

Our company, B, will do the guard duty for the entire 4th Regiment tonight. Co. B was the first of the Missouri National Guard to leave camp with loaded pieces.

Considering the climate, health is good among the boys. Plenty to eat and very little to do, they will be able to stand most anything Uncle Samuel calls them for in a few days.

The genuine Edison Mazda Lamps are sold only at Lefler's Drug Store.

DUNKLIN-BOSTWICK.

Clarence Dunklin and Miss Lillie Bostwick, both of Kennett, came to this city Monday evening over the Frisco, and from here motored to Bloomfield, where they were married. The bride is a well known lady of Kennett, who with her charming personality has won a wide circle of admiring friends. The groom is said to be a sterling young man with commendable habits. He is a brother of Mrs. Charles Bostic of this city, with whom he and bride visited with her a few days. Some little romance was connected with the culmination of their love affair and marriage. They have returned to their home in Kennett to receive congratulations of friends who wish that their married life be a long, happy and useful one.—Malden Merit.

Judge H. C. Schult and A. Sloan Oliver of Caruthersville, accompanied by John Thomas Wayland, who is candidate for State Auditor, motored over to this city Friday, and they paid their respects to the Herald office. We found Mr. Wayland a very shrewd and affable gentleman, and one who is a thorough mixer. While he only spent a few moments in Hayti he made several friends and added to his strength.

The 16 months old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. Birce Clark died in this city Sunday morning of congestion of the stomach. The little fellow was laid to rest in White's Cemetery Sunday afternoon late from the undertaking parlors of Geo. Dorris. The Herald joins their friends in extending sympathies.

Drew Vardell submitted to an operation for rupture in a St. Louis hospital last Thursday. He is reported as getting along fine, and expects to be able to return home July 25th.—Kennett Democrat.

Residence Wanted.

Want to rent a five or six room residence in some good part of town, where children will not be subject to unpleasant environments. Phone 32 or 59. Wm. York.

BUSINESS FAILURE.

E. S. Fuller, proprietor of the well known Uncle Fuller's Variety Store, in this city, July 8th, filed a statement with the referee in bankruptcy at Cape Girardeau, Oscar Knehans, and asked that he be adjudicated a bankrupt, and was declared as such on July 15th.

He listed as follows: Assets $3155.00; liabilities $2621.37. He states that the difference between these items represent the worth of the furniture and fixtures in the store.

In a statement to the Herald he said that he and his family were not extravagant, and had used every means to stem the financial tide. And that the failure he accredited to a lack of capital to continue until better times or fall.

Uncle Fuller, as he is known by most of his friends, is a hustler and is always on the move, and it cannot be said that his failure was caused from him not doing his part.

Not only a few months ago Hayti suffered a very disastrous fire and among the buildings burned was the Fuller Hotel. In that fire Mr. Fuller lost several thousand dollars. When Mr. Fuller came to this city several years ago he owned considerable property, today he is flat, and all this with himself and wife in declining years. It seems that losses after another had heaped upon him until he was overloaded, thus the result.

The many business and other friends of Mr. Fuller are sorry to see him in this position and it is hoped that he may yet stem the tide after awhile and again have something for himself.

Geo. Terrett and son of Hayward was visiting friends and attending to business in Hayti Saturday morning. He motored down in a new automobile.

Mrs. Mary Weaver, an old and respected lady of the Dowd-Gayoso neighborhood, died early Monday morning.

Sometimes we are inclined to disbelieve this, but nevertheless it is true. Even this hot weather is for the best. It kills weeds and makes crops grow. It rids our bodies of impure matter by means of perspiration. It is sent as a punishment to the lazy and a blessing to the good.

Even Buckley's Store is for the best. If you don't believe it, come around, inspect our prices, and see if they are not the most reasonable in town. Our goods are the best and freshest to be obtained. If you don't believe it, just give us the chance and we will prove it.
